

General

In 2007, Robert Braxton III, graduated from North Penn High School and enrolled at Temple University. Throughout his educational experience, he stood on many principles that grounded who he was and where he was going. Of them all, he was passionate, loving, and involved in his community which defined him as a leader and pillar in the lives of his family, friends, and community. In the spirit of giving back, the RBIII Foundation is looking to honor a senior who has a similar drive and tenacity to build bridges in their world.

Please provide answers to the following questions and email this questionnaire to rbiiiifoundation@gmail.com

The RBIII Foundation shall make known to NPHS Senior Awards Program of the winning candidates.

Name:

- 1. Tell us about a time you exhibited passion, love, and/or community involvement to serve the greater good.
- 2. Tell us about a time you demonstrated leadership and overcame obstacles through passion, love, and/or community involvement.
- 3. Tell us how you plan to employ passion, love, and/or community involvement in your future endeavors to make an impact.
- 4. Describe a time in your life when passion, love, and/or community involvement shaped who you are as a person.

